| (k) | " | " | tenth and every subsequent anniversary of the said date | | | | | | £350 multiplied by the area factor. | |

(2) In this paragraph "the area factor" means the number of square kilometres comprised in the licensed area at the date upon which the periodic payment in question becomes due.

Royalties

3. - (1) Within two months after the end of the half year in which the Licence is granted, and within two months after the end of every succeeding half year the Licensee shall pay to the Minister a royalty in respect of those periods respectively of two shillings and sixpence for every pound of the value of the petroleum won and saved by the Licensee in the period from the grant of the Licence to the end of the half year in which it was granted and in each succeeding half year respectively without any deduction except as provided by the next sub-paragraph.

(2) The Licensee may deduct from the amount of royalty due in respect of the period from the grant of the Licence to the end of the half year in which it was granted and from the amount of royalty due in respect of each succeeding half year respectively -

- (a) If the period in respect of which that royalty is due is one in which a periodic payment was due and paid, one half of that periodic payment; or
- (b) if the period in respect of which that royalty is due is a half year next following a half year in which a periodic payment was due and paid, an amount equal to that periodic payment less any part thereof deducted from the amount of royalty due in respect of the period in which that periodic payment was due,

but if any periodic payment is greater than the amounts of royalty which would apart from this paragraph be payable in respect of the period in which the periodic payment is due and paid and in respect of the next following half year, no repayment to the Licensee of the whole or any part thereof shall be made nor shall the same be taken into account in respect of the royalty due in respect of any other half year.

(3) The royalty shall be paid on the value of petroleum shown by the statement of value referred to in clause 11 (the marginal note whereof is "Value of petroleum") in respect of each half year, and in the event of a direction that paragraph (2) of that clause shall not apply being such that the Licensee is required to give a revised statement of value pursuant to paragraph (7) thereof or in the event of a dispute as to the value of petroleum, the Licensee shall pay to the Minister any additional sum due or the Minister shall pay to the Licensee any amount overpaid as the case may require, within two months after the service of the notice containing that direction or after the award of the arbitrator or agreement as to the value of the petroleum won and saved in the period in question, as the case may require.
